2019 SPEAKER SERIES EVENTS

Feb 12 Tue: “Local Advocates Confront Immigration Policy Crisis.” Registration and refreshments start at 5:30 PM at Pacific McGeorge School of Law, 3200 Fifth Ave., Courtroom of the Future. Hear the latest about our government imprisoning innocent children, from UCD Immigration Clinic Director Holly Cooper, Psychotherapist Satsuki Ina, and Clinic student litigator Karen Pedraza. Moderated by McGeorge Professor Blake Nordahl. Admission $15, students $5, at www.abaslawfoundation.org.

Mar 31 Sun: ABAS Law Foundation Speaker Series: Vietgone. 7:00 PM at Capital Stage, 2215 J Street. An American love story about two new Americans in 1975. Saigon has fallen. He lost his wife. She lost her fiancé. Will they find each other here? American Theatre Critics Assn’s 2016 Steinberg New Play Award. Unlike mainstream media’s Asian American stereotypes, playwright Qui Nguyen does “feminist, strong women,” “sexy men,” and humor that resonates. Details, tickets and sponsorships: www.abaslawfoundation.org.

May 18 Sun: ABAS Law Foundation Speaker Series Joint Program with the Sacramento Asian Pacific Film Festival. Watch www.abaslawfoundation.org for information.

August 10 and 11 (Sat and Sun): Hold These Truths*. Acclaimed one-man play about Gordon Hirabayashi, the civil rights hero who challenged World War II’s race-based restrictions in the Supreme Court. Playwright Jeanne Sakata’s “epic love story between one man and the U.S. Constitution” received three 2018 Theatre Bay Area Awards. Watch www.abaslawfoundation.org for information.
