

The ABAS Law Foundation congratulates the 2020 Scholarship Recipients

Nathalie Nguyen is a 2020 graduate from Lincoln Law School who believes strongly in community activism. She currently works for the Homeless Coordinating and Financial Council of the California Business Consumer Services and Housing Agency and is a 2019 fellow of the New Leaders Council, Sacramento Chapter. Nathalie hopes to achieve her dream of opening up a non-profit that will serve the underprivileged communities. She is the recipient of the Alexandria Jo Scholarship Award.

Kerry Sherman is a 3L student at King Hall. She is currently volunteering as the Development Director of a non-profit organization in Oakland. After law school, she hopes to build a strong practice in the consumer privacy and tech field and work as a pro bono advocate for API Americans, women, and people of color who find themselves in vulnerable situations. Kerry is the recipient of the Araki Isenberg Scholarship Award.

Vannalee Cayabyab is a 2L student at King Hall. She was selected as one of the summer externs for Orrick through the Sacramento County Bar Association Diversity Fellowship Program. In the upcoming academic year, Vannalee plans to participate in the Immigration Law Clinic where she can provide assistance in removal defense and the affirmative asylum process.

Jacqueline Nguyen is a 2020 graduate from King Hall. She went to law school with an interest in LGBT rights and employment law. Jacqueline is a former legal fellow with UC Davis Campus Counsel and participated in the UC Davis Civil Rights Clinic. She hopes to pursue a career in the university setting.
